

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Since the Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has been in effect, our family time has not been constantly interrupted. We received 12 to 15 calls per week and now very seldom receive a call and for that we are thankful. Please do not make any changes as this has made a positive impact on our family.